

Enerweb2 is a cloud based application for efficient, real time, energy management for commercial and residential buildings.

Enerweb2 is a field proven, effective tool for building management to collect energy data and other utilities, based on the true consumption of each and every user or tenant and to automatically execute billing transactions to the end user.

Enerweb2 is designed to seamlessly communication with Siemens Power Meter product series and provides the best-fit software complementary product, to manage energy distribution and billing in multi-tenant buildings and complexes.

Key Features:

- Configurable building data structure and hierarchy
- Role based alerts and events
- Built-in real time energy consumption reports
- Automatically executable billing
- Seamlessly connected to Siemens power meters
- Highly effective for building management
- Beneficial for building tenants for real time energy consumption
- Easy to use, intuitive and available over mobile and desktop

